David Y. Graham Lecturer

The David Y. Graham Lecturer is a distinguished individual in the field of gastroenterology. The presenter is chosen by the President and is subject to approval by the Board of Trustees. This named lectureship was established in 2004 in recognition of the many contributions to clinical gastroenterology by David Y. Graham, MD, MACG. The lectureship was made possible through a donation by Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., and Meretek Diagnostics, Inc. Dr. Graham gave the inaugural presentation.

2010 Lecturer

Grace H. Elta, MD, FAGG

GI Training: Where Is It Headed?

Dr. Grace H. Elta attended the University of Michigan Medical School, graduating in 1977. She completed her internal medicine residency and gastroenterology fellowship at Tufts New England Medical Center in Boston. In 1982, she returned to Ann Arbor for a faculty position and was promoted to Professor of Medicine in 1997.

Dr. Elta is currently Associate Chief of Gastroenterology for Clinical Programs and Director of the Medical Procedures Unit at the University of Michigan. Her clinical and research interests are in pancreatico-biliary diseases and endoscopy. In the 1990s, Dr. Elta served on the American Gastroenterology Association's (AGA) governing board during her term as Chair of the AGA's Patient Care Committee, and in 2005 completed a six year term on the Subspecialty Board in Gastroenterology for the American Board of Internal Medicine. Over the last 10 years, she has served on the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ASGE) governing board as councilor, ASGE Secretary, annual meeting program chair, and president of the ASGE.

We are proud to recognize Dr. Grace H. Elta as the 2010 David Y. Graham Lecturer for her service and leadership in clinical gastroenterology and research.
